EARTH DAYS: IT'S A PARTY FOR THE PLANET!

Check out the fun as our animals get special treats, enjoy hands-on activities for humans, and learn about ways to help all creatures on our planet – including you!

Zoo hours today: 9:30 a.m. to 4 p.m.

FUN FOR OUR ANIMALS

11 a.m. Shark Talk, South Pacific Aquarium
Noon Polar Bears, Arctic Tundra: See bears devour a floating ice block topped with a marshmallow creation.
12:30 p.m. Primates, Asian Forest Sanctuary: Watch them munch on special "cookies." Tigers will get some treats, too.
1 p.m. Elephants, Elephant Yard: Suki and Hanako get special enrichments.
1:30 p.m. Wild Wonders Outdoor Theater: See our Seriema, Twiggy, bash a plastic frog in a scene from our live animal show.

SPECIAL EARTH DAYS ACTIVITIES

Find your favorite activity among a world of fun scattered around the zoo, including:

- Shellfish science: Enjoy a fun chemistry demonstration.
- Survival in the Arctic: See if you can survive as a polar bear.
- Be a scientist: Match photos of animals caught with a camera "trap."
- One paw print at a time: Learn how to shrink your carbon footprint.

Stingray Cove opens May 4

Touch these fascinating animals in an interactive exhibit featuring several species of stingrays.

Wild Wonders Outdoor Theater, Budgie Buddies return May 11

Live animal show will delight you; you can feed colorful birds with seed sticks.

EARTH DAYS ARE PRESENTED BY TACOMA POWER

Pick up a free energy-efficient light bulb and get bright ideas for saving energy at the special Tacoma Power display.

Learn more about Point Defiance Zoo & Aquarium at pdza.org.

Follow us on