

The sweet side of conservation...

CANDY SHOPPING GUIDE

The companies listed below are members of the Roundtable on Sustainable Palm Oil (RSPO). They have pledged to use certified sustainable palm oil in their products and their actions are working to make a difference for wildlife such as Asian elephants, orangutans, sun bears, and tigers.

Join the efforts to protect wildlife next time you shop by supporting companies that are part of the RSPO. Use this guide to help you select candy, snacks, and chocolate made with sustainable palm oil!

ConAgra Fiddle Faddle

ConAgra Crunch & Munch

ConAgra Poppy Cock

Ghirardelli (All Varieties)

Kellogg's Austin Cheese Crackers

Kellogg's Austin Peanut Butter Crackers

Kellogg's Famous Amos Cookies

Kellogg's Fruit Snacks

Kellogg's Marshmallow Treats

Kellogg's Pop Tarts

Lindt & Spungli Lindor Truffles (All Varieties)

Nestle Baby Ruth

Nestle Butterfinger

Nestle Crunch Bar

Nestle 100 Grand

PepsiCo (Frito Lay) Cheetos

PepsiCo (Frito Lay) Doritos

PepsiCo Grandma's Cookies

Wonka (Nestle) Bottlecaps

Wonka (Nestle) Gobstoppers

Wonka (Nestle) Gummies

Wonka (Nestle) Laffy Taffy Candy

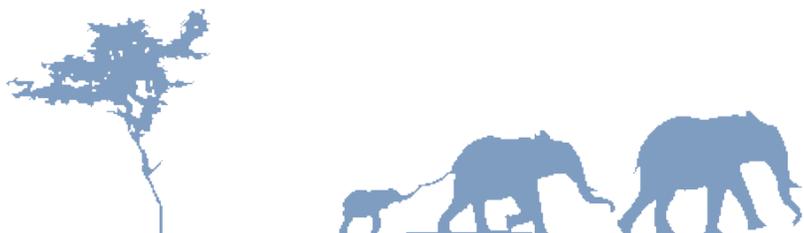

Wonka (Nestle) Lik-M-Aid (Fun Dip)

Wonka (Nestle) Nerds Candy

Wonka (Nestle) Sweetarts

In general, any product made by Nestle, Lindt and Spungli, Kellogg's, PepsiCo (Frito Lay), and ConAgra, even if they are not listed above, are good choices as they are all members of the RSPO.

If one of your favorite treats is produced by a company not listed above, check to see if they are members of the RSPO by visiting <http://rspo.org>. If not, let them know you care! Write a letter encouraging them to use sustainable palm oil and join the RSPO. For more information on how you can make a difference for Asian elephants and other wildlife visit www.elephanttag.org/professional/professional_palmoil_awareness.html.

Content adapted from the Cheyenne Mountain Zoo's Campaign for Sustainable Palm Oil and the Roundtable on Sustainable Palm Oil's website. Information Current as of January 2011.