ARCTIC ANIMAL PLAY DAY: A COOL WAY TO SEE THE ZOO

Play a game, identify a smell, create a piece of artwork: We've got lots of interactive activities for people today - plus the antics of Polar bears, Arctic foxes, Pacific walruses and other cold-climate animals – and you can learn how to help preserve their wild habitat

Arctic Animal fun and games for you to enjoy

Fur! | Muskoxen viewing

Can you identify an animal based on its fur? Give it a try

Catch of the Day! | Polar Bear viewing

See if you can survive as a polar bear hunting for food

Art for Walruses | Rocky Shores

Create a masterpiece and leave it for walruses to view

What's that smell? | Sea Otter viewing

Use your sniffer to determine what gustatory enrichments Arctic animals get

Zoo Toy Bin | Sea Otter area

Match the enrichment item to the animal that uses it

Marine Mammal Food Prep Tours

Marine Mammal Food Prep Building Learn what it takes to feed a zoo full of hungry Arctic and marine mammals each day

Today's schedule of other events

11 a.m. Outer Reef Shark Feed,

South Pacific Aquarium

1 a.m. Arctic Fox enrichment

11 a.m. to 3 p.m. Marine Discovery Center

Noon: Polar Bear enrichment/Keeper Talk, Arctic Tundra

12:30 p.m. Asia Keeper Talk, Asian Forest Sanctuary

1 p.m. Elephant Keeper Talk, Elephant Barn area

1:30 p.m. Animal Close Encounter,

Wild Wonders Outdoor Theater 2 p.m. Red Wolf Keeper Talk

Red Wolf Woods

3 p.m. Walrus enrichment, Rocky Shores

ZOO HOURS TODAY | 9:30 a.m. – 4 p.m.