Special price of $2 off general admission is available to all veterans and their dependents

Tacoma, Wash. – To honor their service, United States military veterans will receive a special discount to Zoolights at Point Defiance Zoo & Aquarium on a total of six Mondays and Wednesdays this holiday season.

The discount of $2 off Zoolights General Admission is available to all who are serving or have served honorably in the United States military, as well as to their dependents. It's a great price break that guarantees admittance on each of those nights for just $8 per person.

The dates are Nov. 28 and 30 and Dec. 5, 7, 12 and 14.

A special 10 percent discount also will be available in the zoo's Gift Shop on these evenings.

Zoolights brings zoo animals and local landmarks to life in more than 600,000 sparkling LED lights, providing a joyous holiday landscape through which visitors can stroll. In addition, some of the zoo's animals are on exhibit during Zoolights. Look for massive sharks and other sea life in the aquariums, spy meerkats in their habitat and feed Nigerian dwarf goats at Kids' Zone. Plus, ride a camel, and have a family photo taken in a stationary antique sleigh headed up by real reindeer.

Active duty military and those who have served in the past must bring proof of their service in order to receive these discounts. The special admission price is not valid with any other discounts or coupons.

Zoolights is presented by Fred Meyer with support from KING 5.
