Unique Animal Shoutouts

Send a special message to family and friends from an animal at Point Defiance Zoo & Aquarium or Northwest Trek Wildlife Park

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: August 6, 2020

TACOMA, Wash.-- Are you missing your family and friends? Do you want to wish them a socially distanced “Happy Birthday!” or “Congrats!”? Animal lovers can now share a special message with a wild touch, all from the comfort of your own couch! Point Defiance Zoo & Aquarium and Northwest Trek Wildlife Park are now offering “Animal Shoutouts.” Anyone can send a customized video greeting to a friend or loved one, complete with a favorite animal.

“Perhaps now, more than ever, we need opportunities for fun and positive connections with each other and with animals and nature,” said Conservation Engagement Curator Wendy Spaulding. “We hope our new Animal Shoutouts bring that special joy that only animals can bring, even at a distance.”

How it works:

One of Point Defiance Zoo or Northwest Trek’s zookeepers will speak a personalized message alongside one of many adorable animals of your choosing, including a walrus, sloth, seal, mountain goat or bald eagle.

- When you book, you’ll select an available filming date and fill in a form with your details, the message you want to send and your choice of animal.
- We’ll make a 30-second video with animal care staff speaking your message and your animal choice adding a special gesture.
- Within 48 hours of the filming date we’ll send you a link to download your video. You can then send it on to the recipient.
- Cost: $50 per Animal Shoutout
